ITINERARY IN DETAIL

Day 1: Arrive at the hotel nearby Chitwan National Park

Upon arrival at Chitwan, our representative will introduce you to your hotel room and after being fresh, you will have lunch and then you will be briefed about the Chitwan jungle safari program. Late afternoon, you will go for an elephant-back safari for about two hours, an activity in which you will ride on an elephant to explore the jungle and wildlife. You will see varieties of animals like the one-horned rhinoceros, several types of deer, monkeys, wild boar, bison, sloth bear, leopard and, if lucky, the Royal Bengal tiger.

Day 2: Full day Chitwan jungle safari activities

Your day starts with a wakeup call/knock followed by tea/coffee. After the tea/coffee, you will go for a nature walk with a jungle guide/naturalist. Walking on foot through the jungle of Sal and open grassland you will enjoy the beautiful environment with chirping of birds, humming of insects and roaring of animals. You will get back to the resort for breakfast. You will have breakfast before heading out for bird watching and the canoe trip. The canoe is a long wooden boat made from either silk cotton tree or Sal tree and accommodates as much as 15 people depending upon the length. The ride will be about 40 minutes and during the canoe ride you can see the two species of crocodile basking in the sun and many birds and if you are lucky enough a rhino drinking water from the river. The canoe ride ends near the Elephant breeding center where you can see more than 25 elephants and some small yet big new borns. The Naturalist will brief you about the daily routine, behavior and eating habit of the elephants. After the briefing we will go to the river to see the elephants bathing. You can take a shower on top of an elephant after paying 2-3 dollars if not taking pictures of others doing so is always free. We will head back to the hotel and have lunch. After lunch we will participate in the elephant back safari which is usually 1.5 to 2 hours long. You often see animals like deer, monkey and Rhino in this trip. Walk back through the forest to the hotel.

Day 3: Chitwan jungle safari Program ends- depart

Early in the morning you will set off for bird watching program followed by tea. Then you will get back to resort for a nice breakfast. After the breakfast you will proceed to the journey to Kathmandu.
