

Deeper into Upper Mustang Exploratory Trek - 24 Days

Walk an exploratory trek through the mysterious Buddhist Kingdom of Upper Mustang to discover its sky caves and their secrets of Tibetan culture in the territory of Nepal. Situated in the rain shadow of the Dhaulagiri and Annapurna range, Mustang is one of Nepal's most varied and stunningly beautiful regions. Prohibited to travelers until 1992, Upper Mustang only half-opens its door to a small number of travelers motivated by the discovery of the amazing kingdom of "Lo Pa".

Still categorized into a restricted area, Upper Mustang sees a limited number of tourists, and it's able to hide the secrets of thousands of caves distributed sparingly on its red cliffs. Carved canyons and fantastic rock formations, traditional, white-washed Tibetan-style villages, royal palaces, crumbling fortresses, unexplored cave complexes, Tibetan Buddhist fortified monasteries, ubiquitous chortens and Himalayan snow-peaks are the special characteristics of this region.

The capital, Lo Manthang, a starkly beautiful region, home to Tibetan Buddhism as well as the remnants of the more mystical Bon religion which pre-dates Buddhism is home to the Loba people, and its walled city is considered by some scholars to be the best-preserved medieval fortress in the world, a candidate to become a UNESCO World Heritage.

Our Deeper into Upper Mustang Exploratory trek is a journey along some of the least known routes to the more isolated villages in this sun-drenched region, often following the rocky Kali Gandaki riverbed, other times trekking on spectacular trails high above it, and descending through marvelously sculpted and multi-hued gorges. Upper Mustang is the realm of the last nomads of Mustang, still living their traditional migratory lifestyle on the high plateaus bordering Tibet.

We visit some of Upper Mustang's most far-flung villages such as Tangge, Ghara, Yara, Samdzong, having salt-butter tea and bartering for locally-woven textiles with the villagers, have coffee, and chat with the King of Mustang, Jigme Parbal Bista. We explore several caves like Konchok Ling Cave, Chungsi caves, Choser cave Tashi Kabum. We visit ancient Buddhist monasteries like Luri Gompa, Ghar Gumba, Namgyal Gompa, Gompa in Garphu, and Niphu, three gompas of the walled city of Lo Manthang, and many others.

Deeper into Upper Mustang Exploratory trek is a long trek, off the beaten path trek, an exploratory trek and a cultural trek ideal for enthusiastic adventurous fellow interested in ancient Buddhist cultures, exploration of caves, Tibetan Buddhist cultures and want to discover the remotest part of Upper Mustang.

If you are looking for a shorter cultural trek to Upper Mustang then our Upper Mustang Trek- 17 days would be suitable for you. The best time for the Upper Mustang trek is from March to October (June to October most recommended). If you can get there in August, the tempting panorama of flowering buckwheat fields will cherish you.

Day 4: Fly to Jomsom (2700m/8856 ft) and trek to Kagbeni (2850m/9350 ft)

Today we are scheduled to take a flight away from the charming Pokhara city and head up high to Jomsom. Unlike Pokhara city, Jomsom lies within a very rural part of Nepal with many trekking routes seemingly starting from there.

In addition to that, as it is situated at a very high altitude of 2,700 meters above sea level, Jomsom is a beautiful town where trekkers can get the first glimpse of traditional, old-style houses. As soon as you land in Jomsom, you can feel the natural freshness with the wind blowing through the valleys, hills, and cliffs of this magnificent region. Continuing on from Jomsom, we shall follow the mystique Kali Gandaki Valley up and end our day at Kagbeni village.

Stay overnight at Kagbeni.

Walking Time: 3-4 hrs

Accommodation: Local lodge.

Meal: B, L, D

Day 5: Kagbeni to Muktinath (3760 m/12464 ft)

It is day five and we have now started feeling the effects of 'High Altitude Trekking' as we gain elevation beyond 3,000 meters above sea level. Having said that, the trek, in general, will become more blissful as trails become more picturesque filled with heavenly trans-Himalayan landscapes and terrains.

Our trekking trail follows a trekking route towards Jharkot and Ranipawa village. And as we continue ahead, we will reach Muktinath Temple. Known for being a popular religious site, Muktinath temple is a great place to get in touch with the culture and religion of Nepal.

Stay overnight at Muktinath.

Walking Time: 3-4 hrs

Accommodation: Local lodge

Meal: B, L, D

Day 6: Muktinath -cross Gyu La (4077m) to Tetang (3040m/9970 ft)

The main focus for today will be to cross the Gyu La Pass which stands at a high elevation of 4,077 meters above sea level. Following a bright, vivid trail filled with gorgeously festooned fluttering prayer flags. Along our way to Tetang village, we will cross Gyu La while gazing at the spectacular Himalayan views.

After crossing the Gyu La, we will make a descend down to a green valley and reach Tetang village. Upon reaching Tetang, you will be able to get some amazing insights into the rural lifestyle of Nepalese people who have lived here for several generations. Furthermore, Tetang is a quiet photographic village for those who have a passion for photography.
