

Langtang Gosaikunda Trek - 16 Days

Langtang Gosaikunda Trek offers a wonderful opportunity to explore gorgeous valleys of the Langtang region and the scenic lakes situated at higher altitudes of Gosaikunda. Langtang Gosaikunda trek gives you the chance to perceive the glimpse of Himalayan ranges up-close. You will surely get amazed by trekking along forests and valleys to experience the scenic beauty of holy Lake Gosaikunda. The sacred lake holds great importance to Hindus and Buddhists' devotees traveling there, especially on full moon days.

Our real Langtang Gosaikunda Trek adventure starts after reaching the Syabrubesi passing by Dhunche. Then, trekking through the rhododendron, oak trees, and bamboos will take you one step closer to nature. Here most of the villages are inhabited by Tamang and Sherpa people.

In our adventurous trekking days in Langtang National Park, Kyangjin Ri is the main viewpoint from where we can see the glimpse of Himalayan ranges like Langtang Lirung, Dorje Lakhpa, Ganesh Himal, and more or less other dazzling small peaks. An endangered species, Yak, is seen grazing on our further trekking towards Singompa. Also, the Langtang Gosaikunda Trek region is famous for producing Yak Cheese in cheese factories where you can surely taste some.

Moving on to pilgrimage site Gosainkunda, view the magnificent sunrise view over the hundreds of sparkling lakes. Lakes are mainly Saraswatikunda, Bhairabkunda and Gosaikunda. It carries great importance to Hindus as it is believed that Lord Shiva created the Gosaikunda with his trident. After passing Laurebinayak pass, you can't get off your eyes through spectacular views of Manasalu, Ganesh Himal, and Langtang Lirung. Then we descend steeply to our camp near Gopte and walk towards Kutumsang, Chisopani, before taking a drive back to Kathmandu.

Day 2: Trek preparation and Kathmandu Valley Sighting Tour.

Today after breakfast we start a guided tour to these four medieval and spiritual sites in Kathmandu which are also listed as UNESCO World Heritage Sites:

Durbar Square: Durbar Square is a complex of historic palaces, courtyards and temples, built between the 12th and 18th centuries, used to be the Royal palace compound of the ancient Malla kings of Kathmandu. Interesting pieces here to see are 17th century stone inscription set into the wall of the palace, Taleju temple-tallest of all structures built by king Mahendra Malla in 1549 A.D. , Jagannath temple- built in the 16th century, known for fascinating erotic figures carving I the wooden struts eaves, Kal Bhairav- one of the largest stone idol in Kathmandu representing the terrorizing aspects of Shiva, Statue of King Pratap Malla in praying gesture to Digu Taleju the royal family deity right across, Kumari Ghar- 17th century Kumari temple, Kasthamandap- built from the timber of a single tree, Kathmandu derives its name from Kasthamandap. The entire Palace Complex is also known as Hanuman Dhoka named after a monkey god called Hanuman. One can see a huge stone statue of Hanuman painted all red right next to the main entrance (the golden gate) of the palace. Hanuman here is regarded as a powerful protector of the entire Durbar Square.

Pashupatinath: Pashupatinath Temple is one of the most significant Hindu temples of Lord Shiva in the world located on the bank of the Bagmati River. It is a square two tiered pagoda temple built on a single tier plinth which is famous all over the world. Although entrance into the temple complex is allowed to Hindus only, you can clearly see the temple and the activities from the eastern bank of the Bagmati River. Besides being a place of worship, the bank of Bagmati River alongside Pashupatinath Temple is the most important cremation site for the Hindus in Nepal.

Bouddhanath: Bouddhanath, a Buddhist shrine in unique octagonal Mandala design with hundreds of prayer wheels and the 108 images of the Buddha set into the niches around the huge structure. Bouddhanath Stupa is one of the large Stupas in the world. Bouddhanath is also famous for over 50 Tibetan monasteries, thus the area is also known as 'Little Tibet'. You can join the locals to circumambulate the Stupa, bargain for handicrafts in the shops or sit on a rooftop restaurant and absorb the atmosphere.

Swoyambhunath: Popularly known as Monkey temple due to profusion of monkey found in the shrine area, Swoyambhunath is a 2000 years ancient Stupa situated on a small hill. It is world's most celebrated Buddhist shrine and its main temple is capped by a pinnacle of copper gilt and is painted on the four sides with all seeing eyes of Lord Buddha.
